ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Sunday during the service we will be examining some sensitive issues from Matt 5:27-32. Because of the mature nature of these subjects we are planning to have activities for kids PK-5th grade during the service. Jr and Sr high youth are welcome to help with the younger kids if you as parents decide that the content is not appropriate for your child. Any questions please contact Lucas Yoder.

WHO'S GOT YOUR GOAT??? Whether you are feeling BLUE for Willie's Billie's or keeping Annie's Nannies in the PINK, bring your funds next week to put in the colorful buckets that support the MY COINS COUNT GOAT CHALLENGE. The goat project provides food, milk, hope and a way for families in need to support themselves worldwide. Your small change makes a BIG difference. Check the visual board in the back to see who is ahead!

Is the current political news unsettling to you? Stahl Menn Church will host a screening of Jesus for President on Sunday, April 17 at 7pm. The DVD documents a book Jesus for President: Politics for Ordinary Radicals, by Claiborne and Hawes. The authors create a refreshing perspective on how Jesus and politics interact—with some powerful preaching and singing thrown in. It's written for those who seek to follow Jesus, rediscover the spirit of the early church, and incarnate the kingdom of God.
