ANNOUNCEMENTS

We extend a warm welcome to John Troyer. John is the Executive Director for Evana Network and will bring the morning message.

TODAY--KMC youth are sponsoring a Pasta, Salad and Sundae Bar! Support your KMC youth by having lunch in the Fellowship Hall. You can build your own bowl of pasta, create a fabulous salad, and then top it off with a scrumptious have-it-your-way ice cream sundae!! All donations will support KMC youth "Learn and Serve" plans for this summer. You can find out more about what they are doing this summer at the lunch, too!

May 7th. KMC youth will lead us in a special morning worship dedicated to learning more about what God has to say about mental health struggles and how we can walk alongside each other as brothers and sisters. Several of our church family will share testimony, we will welcome a guest speaker, Jen Rowland, a Christian mental health counselor from our community, and we will share special music and prayer together. Please contact Stephanie Leverknight or Theresa Wolf with any questions.

Directory Updates—for those who have a Directory, please pick up your new pages/labels from the information desk. If you do not have a Directory, Marcia or Norma will be glad to help you.

Work will soon begin on the budget for 2015/2016. Budget request forms for ministries are in mailboxes of ministry leaders today and need to be returned by May 3rd.

Let's be a BLESSING and say THANKS at the same time! Sign up to help provide homemade cookies/goodies, water, and sodas for the CT Post Prom activities, May 12th. This year we have much to be thankful for as God worked to allow us to use CT's auditorium to host the Silver Ring Thing. Let's show them how very much we appreciate them and care for the students in providing these things for their chaperoned and safe after prom time at the school. Questions?? See Trish Leverknight.

Ted & Company will present a program at Stahl Mennonite Church on May 6th, at 7:00 pm. The live theater performance of Laughter is Sacred Space, by Ted Swartz, walks audiences through his relationship with friend and business partner, Lee Eshleman, who took his own life in 2007. Ted explores the paradox of working with a comedic partner struggling with bipolar disorder, as well as the challenge of writing and performing stories about God while experiencing the absence of God after Lee's death. The play is followed by a talk-back with the audience.

Items are needed for the Market Place at the TriState Relief Sale. These can be handcrafted or gently used such as household items, knickknacks, decorative, and Christmas items, doilies, plants, and miscellaneous items. If you have questions or you wish to drop off your items at World's attic, please contact Sheri Speigle at 814-479-2799 or email thespeigles@yahoo.com.

The annual Golf outing to benefit Laurel View Village is Saturday, May 13th. See Brad Otto for more detail.

St. Francis Sharing & Caring will hold a dedication service for the new building on April 30 at 2:30pm. We invite you to come celebrate with us and view our new space. A time of refreshments and fellowship will follow the service. Overflow parking will be available at St. Anne's Catholic Church with shuttle service provided.
