Beginning tonight at 6:30pm and continuing for seven weeks, Pastor Dan will lead in a book study of The Tangible Kingdom by Hugh Halter and Matt Smay. We are making 500 goody bags for students in attendance... you can donate snacks at the info station by March 19th. All snacks must be individually wrapped. Ideas include: Gum, slim jims, chocolates, rice krispie treats, mini packs of M&M's & gummy candies, sun chips or doritos, cuties, or $$$$ to help the team buy some snacks if you don't have time to shop! Also, anyone who has contact with a local business who might donate coupons for a free drink or snack, or a monetary donation would be super (we have info to take to business', if needed).

KMC Book Club: This month's selection is All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr. It tells the story of Marie-Laure, a blind girl, and her life in Paris. When she is twelve, the Nazis occupy Paris and she and her father flee to an uncle's house by the sea. An orphan, Werner, grows up in Germany. He travels to the heart of the war where his life and that of Marie-Laure converges. We will meet on Monday March 27 @ 1:00 to discuss the book. If you would like to borrow a copy to read and join our discussion, contact Jo Ann Philibin @ 536-7009. All are welcome!
