

KMC Book Club: this month's selection is An Abundance of Katherines by John Green. If you would like a copy of the book to read and join us for a discussion on Monday, September 26 @ 1:00, contact Jo Ann Philibin @ 536-7009. All are welcome!

Habitat for Humanity is collecting old worn jeans to be shredded and used to make house insulation. They will collect every Saturday during September from 9am-12noon, in the Galleria parking lot across from McDonalds.

You are invited to Singing in the Big Savage Mountain Tunnel on the Rails to Trails. A group will leave Thomas Mennonite Church at 1:30pm TODAY and travel to the starting location. Bring your own picnic, water and flashlight. Bicyclers and walkers welcome. Route is handicap accessible. Walking forward and back is 2 + 1/2 miles. Bicyclers will ride further. Contact Dale/Retha Thomas at 288-3279 with questions.

St. Francis items for September: Canned Pumpkin, canned milk

Christ has no body now on earth but yours;

yours are the only hands
with which Christ
can do his work,
yours are the only feet
with which Christ
can go about the world, yours are the only eyes through which Christ's compassion can shine forth upon a troubled world.

Christ has no body on earth now but yours.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

All youth (grades 6th and up) and families. Join us for a brief (but important) parent meeting today after worship. We'll meet in the Fellowship Hall—lunch available for you and the family.

Next Sunday, September 25th, Wes Furlong from the Evana Network will bring the morning message. A light lunch will be provided in the Fellowship Hall followed by a question/answer time with Wes. Come with your written questions. Our Pastors and Servant Team are recommending affiliation with Evana. You may learn more about Evana at www.evananetwork.org.

Will you bake a pie? KMC Youth will have a concession stand at the auction across the street from the church this Saturday, Sept. 24th. If you would be willing to bake a pie to help the youth, please sign today at the information desk. Your pie donation should be brought to the church by Friday the 23rd or early Saturday morning. Contact Theresa theresajwolf@gmail.com or 732.690.8768 with questions. Thank you in advance for your help!

Next Sunday, September 25th will be our first MY COINS COUNT offering for the new year. Be sure to bring your change, bills or checks and learn how even small change can make a BIG DIFFERENCE in our world.

Child Safety Training for 2016-2017: Good news for the KMC volunteers whose name is on the Child Safety List of those who have completed child safety training (located on the bulletin board across from the library): your child safety training for this fall will be on line if you have an e-mail address. For those who do not have an e-mail address, a printed copy will be provided for you to complete. I will be giving all of you more information via your mail boxes next week. Only new volunteers will need to complete training at the church. Anyone who would like to become a KMC volunteer for this year, must be a regular attendee of Kaufman Church for a minimum of 6 months. If you have any questions, please contact Jo Ann Philibin, KMC Child Safety Advocate @536-7009

Updated your will lately? Learn more about how to create a will in the Making Your Wishes Known guide that can help you to take the key steps in creating a will and learn other end-of-life planning tips. An educational service of faith-based Everence Financial, the free guide is available at www.everence.com/end-of-life-planning.

Help us fill the cradle to send hugs all around the world. Once again, Kirby and Lydia Shaffer and family will honor their deceased children by collecting and packing items for MCC infant kits. If you would like to participate in the project, a list of items needed is at the display in the foyer. Money will also be accepted for shipping. The goal is to pack many of the kits on our Serve Day, October 1st.

Plan to join us here at the church, Saturday, October 1st for our MCC Serve Day. There will be tasks for all ages and skills—packing kits, woodworking, quilting, knotting, machine stitching etc. Students, if you need service hours, this is a great opportunity! Come anytime between 9am-3pm. Lunch will be provided. Kits packed will be sent to MCC for immediate use. Other items will be for the 2017 Tri-State sale. Bring a friend and help those less fortunate.

Groups are beginning to pack school kits. If you are willing to transport kits (however many your vehicle will hold) between now and mid October, to Chambersburg or Ephrata, please contact the office. Also, boxes are needed for the kits—approximately 20" L, 13" W, 10" H is a good size.

KMC Youth will visit our friends at Habecker Mennonite (former Karen Refugee from Burma youth who we connected with this past summer) October 21-23rd in Lancaster. If you have a minivan or large SUV that we could borrow for the weekend, please contact Theresa Wolf as soon as possible.

If you could ask God One Question, what would it be? Do you have a hard question about life? (Ex: Is there really a hell?, What is the purpose of praying?, or Why is my health failing?) Come Wednesday night, September 21st, @ 6:30 pm to the new adult discussion class, "Life Questions", as we look into God's word for the answers to the hard questions of life. Please list your "Life Question" on the paper inside your bulletin and place it in the box on the information table. This week Pastor Dan will lead the discussion on: Where is God when bad things happen?

Come at 5:30 for supper as well. Menu: Chicken gnocchi soup, salad, bread, apples with dip and homemade dessert. Hope to see you there.

Bring the kids, too!! KMC youth and adult leaders will be running rotation style Bible workshops for the kids pre-school thru 5th grade. We will get together every 1st and 3rd Wednesdays beginning September 21st just like the grown-ups. After dinner, meet in the sanctuary at 6:15. Pre-school thru 2nd grade is: Club Small Fry. 3rd grade-5th grade is Club 345. Contact theresajwolf@gmail.com with any questions! REGISTRATION FOR KIDS CLUBS IS NOW OPEN. Stop by the registration table today in the foyer.
